

iFluxNews – Privacy Policy

Last updated: 11.10.2025

1. Information Collection

iFluxNews does not collect, store, or share personal data on external servers. All user preferences, filters, and app settings are stored locally on the device. The App may access the internet to: • Fetch publicly available news via APIs • Generate AI-based summaries • Display linked external articles No personal identifiers are transmitted to our servers.

2. Subscription Data

Payments and subscriptions are processed by Apple through your Apple ID account. We do not access, store, or process any payment data directly. Apple ' s Privacy Policy governs all billing and subscription transactions.

3. Feedback and Communication

If you contact us (e.g., via email), we will use your message solely to respond and improve our services. Your communication will not be shared with third parties.

4. AI and External Data

iFluxNews uses AI services (e.g., OpenRouter, Tavily, or similar) to summarize news content. These models process publicly available information to generate summaries. We do not transmit personal data to AI providers. Summaries may contain factual inaccuracies — users should always verify the information using the provided news links.

5. External Links

The App includes links to third-party news websites. We do not control or assume responsibility for their content or privacy practices. Each link is attributed to its original publisher for transparency and compliance.

6. Children ' s Privacy

The App is not intended for children under 16 years of age. We do not knowingly collect any data from minors.

7. Security

Since the App stores all data locally, your information remains under your control. If you uninstall the App, all stored data is deleted automatically.

8. App Tracking Transparency

iFluxNews does not use tracking technologies for advertising or user profiling. The app does not link user data with third parties for marketing or analytics purposes. We comply with Apple ' s App Tracking Transparency framework and GDPR principles.

9. Updates to this Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. The latest version will always be available on our website or within the App.

10. Contact

If you have questions about privacy or data usage, contact: contact@fluxnewsapp.com
